When Grady mentioned Hill's name the uproar increased. The galleries joined the delegates in cheering Hill and the band played "Star Spangled Banner." The Standards of a dozen states crowded around the New York delegation and the cheering continued. It was ten minutes before Grady was allowed to proceed. When he had concluded his eloquent speech Hill arose and said his name had been presented without his approval. For personal and other reasons he could not accept. Cries of "Yes you will" came from the galleries.

Had Their Nerve.

The Rough Riders surely had much nerve. They burst open the crates that contained the cavalry saddles for Gov. Barnes' staff. It is claimed, as shipped from this city. Then to think of the audacious gall of a newspaper making the claim that the "committee" furnished horses for the governor's staff, when the boys paid a hostler $5 to lead the horses from Guthrie down there. Oh, yes, this is a hot one! "Have you seen him?"

Wanted.

Wanted, by Oklahoma City, one Rev. James, an M. E. church minister. He was last seen or heard from on his way to England, where he went in search of hidden millions. It is supposed he is an heir to a valuable estate. People enquiring for him might address Rev. S. E. Betts or "Supt." A. J. Fesler, of Kansas City. No one in Guthrie knows the gentleman though many have heard of his pipe dream to establish a M. E. college.
